Atty. Docket No.: 101324.0001US1

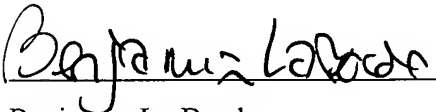

Title: Super Conducting Action Motor (acronym SCAM): Electrical Apparatus for Generating a One-directional (i.e. reactionless) Force, with Applications in Space Vehicle Propulsion

STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR REVIVAL OF AN APPLICATION FOR PATENT ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY UNDER 37 CFR 1.137(b)

Applicant, hereby states that the entire delay in filing a proper response in the above referenced, due by February 26, 2004, until the filing of the attached petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional.

I filed the application and have been prosecuting the application in pro per without the assistance of an attorney. I filed a response to the Final Rejection on November 10, 2003. I was unaware that I needed to file a further response after the Advisory Action was mailed on January 12, 2004. Because the title of the document is Advisory Action, I assumed it was not necessary to respond.

I did not receive the Notice of Abandonment issued April 1, 2004 and only found out that my application had become abandoned when in February 2005 I reviewed the status of my application on the PAIRS website. Since learning of the abandonment I have hired an attorney to revive and prosecute my application on my behalf.
